

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

IKEEM JARMER HUDSON,
Plaintiff,
v.
J. VASQUEZCOY, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 1:21-cv-00861-NONE-EPG

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY THE ACTION SHOULD NOT BE DISMISSED FOR FAILURE TO SERVE,
FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE COURT'S ORDER TO SUBMIT DOCUMENTS FOR SERVICE, AND FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

(ECF NO. 9)

TWENTY-ONE (21) DAY DEADLINE

Plaintiff Ikeem Jarmer Hudson is civilly committed at the Metropolitan State Hospital and proceeds pro se and in forma pauperis in this civil rights action filed pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. (ECF Nos. 1, 4).

Plaintiff filed his complaint on May 28, 2021. (ECF No. 1). The Court screened Plaintiff's complaint, concluding that only Plaintiff's excessive-force claim against Defendant J. Vasquezcoy should proceed past screening. (ECF No. 5, p. 13). The Court allowed Plaintiff to choose between proceeding only on the claim found cognizable by the Court in the screening order, amending the complaint, or standing on the complaint subject to the Court issuing findings and recommendations to a district judge consistent with the screening order. (Id. at 13-14). On July 23, 2021, Plaintiff notified the Court that he wants to proceed only on the claim found cognizable by the screening order. (ECF No. 7). Accordingly, the Court ordered the

1 Clerk to send, and for Plaintiff to return within 30 days of service of the order, certain
2 completed documents necessary to achieve service. (ECF No. 9). The Court warned Plaintiff
3 that “[f]ailure to comply with this order may result in the dismissal of this action.” (Id. at 2).

4 More than 30 days have passed, and Plaintiff has failed to submit the required
5 documents or otherwise respond to the Court’s order. Without the required documents, the 6 United States Marshals Service cannot serve Defendant J. Vasquezcoy and this case cannot 7 proceed. Plaintiff’s failure to initiate service likewise implicates Federal Rule of Civil 8 Procedure 4(m), which provides as follows: “If a defendant is not served within 90 days after 9 the complaint is filed, the court—on motion or on its own after notice to the plaintiff—must 10 dismiss the action without prejudice against that defendant or order that service be made within 11 a specified time.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m). However, “if the plaintiff shows good cause for the 12 failure, the court must extend the time for service for an appropriate period.” Id.

13 “Rule 4(m) applies to pro se litigants as well.” Johnson v. State of Nevada, No. 2:14-cv-
14 01425-GMN-PAL, 2016 WL 6154892, at *2 (D. Nev. Oct. 20, 2016). While Plaintiff might 15 normally be “entitled to rely on the U.S. Marshal for service of the summons and complaint” in 16 complying with Rule 4(m), he cannot do so where he has failed to “provide[] the necessary
17 information to help effectuate service.” Puett v. Blandford, 912 F.2d 270, 275 (9th Cir. 1990).
18 Here, the 90-day period from service of the Court’s July 26, 2021 order (ECF No. 9) is 19 approaching—approximately October 25, 2021, with no information yet provided by Plaintiff
20 for the U.S. Marshal to even attempt service. See Taylor v. San Bernardino Cty. Sheriff, No.
21 EDCV 09-404-MMM-MAN, 2010 WL 5563843, at *1 n.1 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 27, 2010), report
22 and recommendation adopted, No. 09-00404-MMM-MAN, 2010 WL 5564049 (C.D. Cal. Dec.
23 31, 2010) (starting Rule 4(m) deadline (formerly 120 days) from the date of the court’s order
24 authorizing the U.S. Marshal to effect service of process on the plaintiff’s behalf). Accordingly,
25 Plaintiff’s failure to serve and comply with this Court’s order to provide service documents is 26 delaying the prosecution of this case.

27 Local Rule 110, corresponding to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, provides that 28 “[f]ailure of counsel or of a party to comply with . . . any order of the Court may be grounds for

1 the imposition by the Court of any and all sanctions . . . within the inherent power of the 2 Court.” “District courts have inherent power to control their dockets,” and in exercising that
3 power, a court may impose sanctions, including dismissal of an action. Thompson v. Housing
4 Auth. of Los Angeles, 782 F.2d 829, 831 (9th Cir. 1986). A court may dismiss an action with 5 prejudice based on a party’s failure to prosecute an action, failure to obey a court order, or
6 failure to comply with local rules. See e.g., Ferdik v. Bonzelet, 963 F.2d 1258, 1260-61 (9th
7 Cir. 1992) (dismissal for failure to comply with an order requiring amendment of complaint);
8 Malone v. U.S. Postal Service, 833 F.2d 128, 130 (9th Cir. 1987) (dismissal for failure to 9 comply with a court order); Henderson v. Duncan, 779 F.2d 1421, 1424 (9th Cir. 1986)
10 (dismissal for failure to prosecute and to comply with local rules).

11 Accordingly, Plaintiff is ORDERED to show cause why this action should not be
12 dismissed for his failure to serve, failure to comply with this Court’s order to provide service
13 documents, and failure to prosecute.

14 Plaintiff is ordered to file a written response to this order to show cause indicating 15 whether he intends to pursue this action and explaining his failure to submit service documents
16 by the required date. Alternatively, Plaintiff may submit the required documents. Any such 17 response shall be filed no later than twenty-one (21) days after the date of service of this order.
18 Plaintiff is cautioned that failure to respond to this order as set forth above may result in the 19 dismissal of this action.

20 To assist Plaintiff with complying with this order, the Clerk is directed to mail Plaintiff
21 a courtesy copy of the Court’s July 26, 2021 order (ECF No. 9) along with the documents
22 necessary to achieve service that are identified in that order.
23 IT IS SO ORDERED.

24 Dated: September 13, 2021
